

Sunday 5th of July

This is our own preparation Sunday.

As we take the next step out of restrictions, we step into a new season.

Heavenly Father, to you we bring our praise. I thank you for the good things you have done and the things we have learnt during the time of restrictions. We look to you to know what love is. We look to your son, Jesus Christ to lead us, and to your Holy Spirit to transform and renew us.

Scripture: Psalm 117

Action: Write down as many things as you can think of to give thanks to God for from the last 3 months. Keep this list somewhere that you can look at it each day for the next week.

Song: Praise to the Lord, The Almighty
(WOW Hymns Disc 2 Track 9)

Scripture: Psalm 85—Read this passage slowly, pausing after each verse to consider what it means.

This is a psalm of preparation—to prepare ourselves and our church for the harvest of the Lord—that we can received that which is good.

Action: Focusing on verse 10—on other side of this page →
“Love and faithfulness meet together; righteousness and peace kiss each other”

Song: Take <y Life
(WOW Hymns Disc 1 Track 2)

Take some time to pray with your own words and from your heart. Consider the rededication of your life to the Lord and to seek his will in your life.

Song: Come Thou Fount of Every Blessing
(WOW Hymns Disc 2 Track 7)

My Lord, My God. You are my King, and I want to give you everything. I long for your blessing, for your harvest, not for my own desires, but for your glory and your purposes. That your Kingdom may be realised on this earth and in our church, as it is in heaven.

Love is...

(1 Corinthians 13:4-7) _____

Faithfulness is...

Righteousness is...

(Gen 15:6. Deut 6:25, Rom 1:17)

Peace is...

How can our church demonstrate love and faithfulness?

How can I demonstrate love and faithfulness to the people around me?

In what area's of my life is righteousness lacking?

How can God's peace transform my life? (Philippians 4:4-8)
