

Walk by Faith

Week 8

What is something that made you laugh this week?

Read Genesis 18

What stood out to you?

What confused or challenged you?

Why is hospitality so important? Who should we show hospitality to? What should we do to be ready to show hospitality?

Has there ever been a time in your life when you doubted God's plan for you? What was the outcome?

How impossible did it seem for God to give Sarah a child at such an old age? Considering what God did for Sarah, how impossible is your situation today?

Share a promise God has for you where you have responded in disbelief.

Share a promise you are currently claiming for your life?

Is anything too hard for the LORD? What difference should the answer to this question make in your prayer life? What difference should the answer to this question make to your trust in the promises of God?

When God asks something of us that seems impossible, do we lean harder on our own resources, or do we venture in faith based on His total adequacy?

Is it fair for the righteous to suffer with the wicked?

What did God teach Abraham that's applicable to our relationship with the world today?

Personal application

Show hospitality as often and as much as possible.

Ask God to help you trust Him through the impossible

Pray boldly for big things, as Abraham did.

Faith looks beyond all the contrary circumstances to rest upon the character of the one who promised
