

Tell me...

Let the redeemed of the LORD
tell their story

Psalm 107:2

What does thankfulness look like in your life ?

What are some of the reasons that David gives about why we should be thankful to God?

Psalm 107 is filled with examples of how God has delivered and redeemed His people. How has God gone about this work in your life?

Why do you think David opens and closes this psalm writing about the steadfast love of the Lord?

How consistently do you dwell and meditate on the steadfast love of the Lord, as David does throughout the psalms? Why is it important for us to remember the love that God has for us?

How often do you thank the Lord for how He has delivered and redeemed you from your sins? How can you be more intentional moving forward in spending time in thanksgiving for the grace and mercy you have been shown?

In this Psalm we are told to share our testimonies. To tell others about God's work in our lives and the many ways He has blessed us. What are some practical ways you can turn casual conversations with unbelievers to God ?

To think about

What is your testimony? How has God shaped and changed you since He saved you?

To do

Write your own Psalm 107 of how God has worked in your life and express your gratitude for who he is and all his wonderful works.
