

Tell me...

Let the redeemed of the LORD
tell their story

Psalm 107:2

What do you think the woman was really saying in reply to Jesus question, “will you give me a drink?”

If Jesus were to stop by the watering hole where you hang out, what would he probably ask you right now?

What was the woman’s response when Jesus said “If you knew the gift of God and who it is that asks you for a drink, you would have asked him and he would have given you living water?”

How would you compare your own spiritual beginnings with God to that of the woman at the well?

Why didn’t the woman give up on this conversation when Jesus told her, Go, call your husband and come back?

In your own experience do you think the circumstances surrounding your own encounter were coincidental or part of the plan and purpose of God?

How would you describe the way God is working in your life right now?