

18th AUGUST 2019

George W. Truett, a well-known pastor, was invited to dinner in the home of a very wealthy man in Texas. After the meal, the host led him to a place where they could get a good view of the surrounding area. Pointing to the oil wells punctuating the landscape, he boasted, "Twenty-five years ago I had nothing. Now, as far as you can see, it's all mine." Looking in the opposite direction at his sprawling fields of grain, he said, "That's all mine." Turning east toward huge herds of cattle, he bragged, "They're all mine." Then pointing to the west and a beautiful forest, he exclaimed, "That too is all mine."

He paused, expecting Dr. Truett to compliment him on his great success. Truett, however, placing one hand on the man's shoulder and pointing heavenward with the other, simply said, "How much do you have in that direction?" The man hung his head and confessed, "I never thought of that."

Our Daily Bread, October 24, 1992

In the Parable of the Rich Fool, Jesus tells of a man who acquired prosperity, comfort, and abundance, but was consumed with only the here and now. Death came without warning, and he could take nothing with him. God called him a fool, rebuking him for living focused only on himself. This man was rich in the world's eyes but had no relationship with God. He hadn't invested anything in Christ's kingdom.

What is driving your life? Are you fueled by selfish ambition, acquiring wealth for yourself, or anxiously trying to store up security in this lifetime? Or is your motivation more about furthering God's kingdom?

Father, help me not to set my affections on material things but instead to use material things to serve the purpose of spiritual goals. In Jesus' name. Amen.
