Encountering Jesus

15th SEPTEMBER 2019

In John 3 we see a phenomenal conversation between Jesus and Nicodemus that would change Nicodemus's life forever. This conversation makes up some of the most quoted Scriptures that many of us have memorized today. Jesus knew it was understanding these things that would free Nicodemus from living the life of a Pharisee. Nicodemus loved God, but still struggled like the other Pharisees to understand the Kingdom of God. Nicodemus had a soft heart and he wanted to authentically serve the Lord. He may have struggled with similar self-righteous and proud sins the other Pharisees did and many of us do, but overall, deep in his heart, he wanted to follow the Lord.

If we are to be transformed as Nicodemus was we must learn from him. First, we must have a heart to know the Lord. Then we must accept how we too fall short by repenting of our own sins and recognize our need for a Saviour. Lastly, we must remove our faith and trust in ourselves and put them in Jesus and declare Him Lord of our life. We must surrender and do so daily. If we keep our focus here we will keep our minds more on Christ and what He did for us, rather than on our own reputation and religious activities in comparison to others.

For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life. John 3:16

BCT DVD Ministry
Connect & Care

We have appreciated the assistance given by Leigh over the last 6 months with our DVD Care and Connect ministry, while John has been overseas. Each fortnight BCT newsletters, War Cry and DVD's are mailed around Australia to be shared in private homes, Aged Care Centres, and small Corps to assist with meetings.

This ministry connects and encourages others to join with the BCT faith family in worship. We receive letters and phone calls from our friends telling us how they are blessed and encouraged by the messages and appreciate the opportunity to join us in worship.

Some invite friends to join them to share in worship through the DVDs, others are isolated but feel they belong to the BCT family, many support BCT with prayer.

We also thank Tony and Lyndell for their commitment in recording our worship meetings and editing of the DVD's for distribution over many years.
