CONNECTING SALVOS IN MISSION

16 February 2020

If you've gotten anything at all out of following Christ, if his love has made any difference in your life, if being in a community of the Spirit means anything to you, if you have a heart, if you care— then do me a favour: Agree with each other, love each other, be deep-spirited friends. Don't push your way to the front; don't sweet-talk your way to the top. Put yourself aside, and help others get ahead. Don't be obsessed with getting your own advantage. Forget yourselves long enough to lend a helping hand.

Think of yourselves the way Christ Jesus thought of himself. He had equal status with God but didn't think so much of himself that he had to cling to the advantages of that status no matter what. Not at all. When the time came, he set aside the privileges of deity and took on the status of a slave, became human! Having become human, he stayed human. It was an incredibly humbling process. He didn't claim special privileges. Instead, he lived a selfless, obedient life and then died a selfless, obedient death—and the worst kind of death at that—a crucifixion.

Because of that obedience, God lifted him high and honoured him far beyond anyone or anything, ever, so that all created beings in heaven and on earth—even those long ago dead and buried—will bow in worship before this Jesus Christ, and call out in praise that he is the Master of all, to the glorious honour of God the Father.

With the love of Jesus

Self-Denial Appeal Next week we begin a six week look at the work of The Salvation Army in other countries. The Salvation Army founder William Booth always understood that God's love was to be offered to others; that people in real despair need real hope. And real hope is realised through love-filled, practical action. In 1886, Booth called Salvationists to give sacrificially, to deny themselves so that they could offer God's love to a hurting world. So as Salvationists, we give generously to the Self Denial Appeal knowing that our sacrificial giving changes the world because love changes lives.

The following community development projects were funded from the Self Denial Reserve in the 2018–19 financial year: Livelihood improvement and farmers' empowerment in Malawi, Anti-human trafficking projects (including SIMBA) in Kenya, Capacity-building program for communities to mitigate the effects of HIV/AIDS in Swaziland, Sustainable WASH, food security and resilience projects in Malawi and South Africa, Joyville, child and community development program in the Philippines, Young women's skills program in India (North), Chicken income-generating activities in Kenya, Integrated community livelihood development program in Myanmar, Kwetu, anti-human trafficking and community support in Tanzania, A research/pilot program to build futures and stop child marriage in Malawi, An orphan and vulnerable children program in Malawi, Ministry training for corps leaders in Tanzania – second intake, Evangelism training in Northern India, Repair and renovation of training principal's quarters and college staff quarters in Western India, Provision of ambulance for Kolanya Health Centre in Kenya West (2018 Christmas Project) Provision of mattresses for officers in remote areas of Indonesia, Construction, restoration and repairs of corps buildings and officers' quarters destroyed or damaged by the earthquake in Sulawesi, Indonesia, Education support for children of widowed officers and non-commissioned officers and cadets in Papua New Guinea.

Our young adults need us to pray for them as they begin study and work and as they explore God's plan for their lives. What a privilege it is to bring others before God in prayer.
