

In Matthew 7:13-14, Jesus speaks of two different ways: the broad way that leads to destruction and the narrow way that leads to life.

On the broad way there is room for all kinds of fleshly things like bitterness and unforgiveness and resentment and vindictiveness. But on the narrow way there is only room for the Spirit.

In the flesh it is easy to take the broad path, but the end result is destruction. Emotions move us to take the easy way, to do what feels good for the moment. Wisdom moves us to take the hard way that leads to life. The question is: Which will we choose?

No matter what has happened to you in your lifetime, even if you have been abandoned by your spouse or abused by your parents or hurt by your children or others, if you'll stay on that narrow path and leave all your excess baggage behind, sooner or later you will find the peace, joy, and fulfillment you seek.

Jesus is the Way, and He has shown us the way in which we are to walk. Jesus has given us His Holy Spirit to lead and guide us in the way we are to go, the narrow way that leads to life and not the broad way that leads to destruction.

Father, help me to choose the narrow path today—in my thoughts, with my words, and through my actions. When my feelings rise up and I'm tempted to take the broad path, please strengthen me by Your Spirit and help me to make wise decisions I will be happy with later.

In Jesus' Name, Amen.

Spiritual Growth

This week you will find a resource on Salvation 101. This is a good tool to use with new Christians and helping them to wrestle with what it means to be saved. You are encouraged to look at this and even if you have been a Christian for many years it can be a helpful tool to refresh you.

Please remember our members of our faith community in prayer

Future Sunday Meetings

Looking forward to seeing you Sunday 6 September at 10am at 167 Ann St Brisbane at 10am. There will be some noticeable changes in the way things will be done as a result of Covid 19 that we all must be aware of and adhere to, so that we are compliant with both Queensland Health and The Salvation Army regulations:

- Physical distancing – staying 1.5m apart from people who are not a part of your immediate family
- We are able to sing
- No handshaking or hugging
- Hand sanitizer to be used on entry
- In order to maintain the 4 square metre rule people will be seated in both the downstairs and gallery of our hall allowing a capacity of 85 people
- It is necessary for you to provide contact details upon entering the building
- There will be a limited number of musicians participating on the platform at any one time in order to maintain the 4 square metre rule
- You will need to exit the hall once the meeting is finished and not mingle in the foyer or on the stairs
- At this stage coffee and chat will not be recommencing
- Bring your own bible as there are not to be communal books available
- We will continue online meetings as well as in person at BCT
