LIVING THE 167

11th October 2020

But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faith, gentleness, self-control. Against such things there is no law.

Galatians 5:22-23

An examination of the fruits of the Spirit can be intimidating. Working all nine of these traits into your life seems impossible, and indeed it is. But the moment you became a Christian, the Holy Spirit began a divine work to produce Christ's character in you. Regardless of who you are, the Spirit works from the same model, Jesus Christ.

The Spirit looks to Christ in order to find the blueprint for your character. The Spirit will immediately begin helping you experience and practice the same love that Jesus had when He laid down His life for His friends. The same joy He experienced will now fill you. The identical peace that guarded the heart of Jesus, even as He was being beaten and mocked, will be the peace that the Spirit works to instill in you.

The patience Jesus had for His most unteachable disciple will be the patience that the Spirit now develops in you. The kindness Jesus showed toward children and sinners will soften your heart toward others. There will be a goodness about you that is only explainable by the presence of the Spirit of God. The Spirit will build the same faithfulness into you that led Jesus to be entirely obedient to His Father. The Spirit will teach you self-control so that you will have strength to do what is right and to resist temptation.

All of this is as natural as the growth of fruit on a tree. You do not have to orchestrate it on your own. It automatically begins the moment you become a believer. How quickly it happens depends upon how completely you yield yourself to the Holy Spirit's activity.

At Christmas we like to put the message of Christmas in the hands of our mainly music families. We want to ensure that they have a book that they can enjoy. It is a way that we can witness to them about Jesus and as a gift it allows us to bless them .

Would you like to partner with us? We would be grateful for your donation which will contribute to Jesus being revealed in our community.

You can put your donation into an envelope and pop it into the offering on a Sunday marked mainly music or you can make a direct deposit into the Corps account and mark it mainly music

SALVOS CONNECT

Brisbane City Temple will be a connect site for community members to receive financial and material assistance that has been determined by the SAL Assessment team. This will be every Wednesday and Friday between 10am-12pm commencing Wednesday 14th October. It is a great opportunity to serve our community by providing a cup of tea/ coffee and to encourage them with conversation. Please pray for the team who will serve in this ministry and for community members to feel safe and accepted. In our building and by people who will serve them.

Spiritual Growth

Prayer of examen is a practice for discerning the voice and activity of God within the flow of your day. Some helpful questions are

Where was I living out of the fruit of the Spirit?

Where was there an absence of the fruit of the Spirit?

How does the presence of fruit of the Spirit in my life reveal God's presence and his will?

You will find this helpful resource on our website

Encouragement from God's word

What is a verse of Scripture that has encouraged you? It could be an encouragement for someone else.

We want to put verses of encouragement on our Facebook page.
