LIVING
THE 167

25th October 2020

In the Middle East, the relationship between the shepherd and the sheep is special. Sheep know their shepherd's voice, and they follow him when he calls. If a stranger comes along, the sheep shrink back.

Those who are children of God will hear His voice through His Word. Jesus says in John 10:27-28, "My sheep listen to my voice; I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish; no one will snatch them out of my hand."

You know you are one of His sheep when you respond to His voice and His Word. Do you recognize the voice of Jesus? He knows you better than you know yourself.

Jesus says, "I am the good shepherd; I know my sheep and my sheep know me" (John 10:14). Jesus is the Good Shepherd who gave His life for you. He longs for you to draw closer to Him. Can you hear His voice? Do you know His special call to you? Be still, listen, and pray, and you will be blessed by the Saviour's intimate care.

Jesus, thank You for being the Good Shepherd. Train my ear to recognize Your voice and my heart to respond to Your call. Amen.

This is a great opportunity to sit and chat and get to know each other better. There will be a meeting available online that day for those who are not able to come to the park.

Spiritual Growth

Most weeks there is a new spiritual discipline that complements the sermon. These are all available for you in the Spiritual Growth section of our website. Some people are finding this helpful and some are curious and may want to know more. This week there is an article by Kathryn Shirey that helps explain how spiritual disciplines help you to grow in faith and ultimately live the 167. If you would like to know more about developing your spiritual life, this article may just help you.

You will find this helpful resource on our website
