

#FollowMe

26th September 2021

When the man with leprosy said to Jesus, if you are willing, its because no one else was willing. No one would touch him because touching him would make them unclean. Jesus was indignant, overwhelmed with anger and compassion all at once.

- As followers of Jesus what situations around us are we called to touch?
- Do you come up with all sorts of reasons why you shouldn't get involved?
- Do you allow fear and insecurity to shape your behaviour?

Will you pray a dangerous prayer? Lord I am willing

This week's bible reading is Mark 1: 40 - 45

Dedication

Charlotte Cooper will be dedicated today. This is a ceremony where a baby/child is presented back to God with thanksgiving and blessing.

Her parents promise to raise her in the knowledge of God and desire that she will love and serve Him. Along with her family, we have the responsibility as her spiritual family to encourage Charlotte to grow as a disciple of Jesus.

World day of prayer for victims of human trafficking

Lord, we cry out to you with hearts burdened by the degrading practice of human trafficking, our minds unable to fully comprehend the horror of women, men and children Transported to unknown places to be exploited and abused because of greed and profit. Give us the wisdom and courage to confront the evil that makes this possible and to stand in solidarity with victim-survivors.

We pray for effective collaboration between all organisations and government agencies working towards eradicating human trafficking and modern slavery. We ask that compassion will rule over their hearts and minds, so that victim-survivors are not forgotten, and restitution is given.

We bring before you The Salvation Army's frontline workers around the world who are identifying and responding to human trafficking and slavery. We pray for wisdom, Understanding and the provision of resources so that they can offer the right support at the right time.

We also pray for vulnerable migrant workers here in Australia, many of whom are still suffering under COVID-19 restrictions that have left them separated from family for lengthy periods of time. Grant them patience, resilience, and peace despite the hardships they face.
