Pause Reflect Ask Yield

Two thousand years ago the disciples welcomed Jesus back from his regular time and place of prayer with one of the greatest questions of all time...

"Lord teach us to pray."

These disciples would go on to have extraordinary prayer lives. They would become mighty prayer warriors, but it wasn't automatic. Prayer didn't get beamed down upon them from heaven. It wasn't a guaranteed perk of the job of being a follower of Jesus. Prayer was to be learned the hard way.

You cannot grow in prayer without some measure of effort and discomfort, self-discipline, and self-denial. Just as you can't get physically fit without regular exercise and a healthy diet, so your spiritual growth will be determined to a very significant extent, by the prayer exercises you choose (or do not choose) to establish and sustain.

Throughout history, whenever God was about to do a new thing, he first mobilised his people to pray.

Lets get mobile!
