

Walk by Faith

THE LIFE OF ABRAHAM

Brisbane City Temple

October 2023

From the moment you become a believer, you enter the school of faith because, from that point on, God's goal is to teach you to trust in Him.

Sometimes you miss God's best in life simply because you do not trust Him. You get caught up in your circumstances and wonder why difficulties occur.

Abraham was known for his faith even though it was severely tested. Abraham failed at times and had doubts like we do. He wasn't perfect. This is the reason he is an excellent example of what it means to live a vibrant life of faith. Join us as we look at the life of Genesis and discover what it means to walk by faith

Young People's Anniversary

On Sunday 8 October we will celebrate our children and youth as they participate in our time of worship. We will begin at 10am with Primary on Parade and then we will be led by Kids Connection in a time of worship. We thank Elizabeth and Lyndon as they lead their teams in teaching the young people of our Corps. We appreciate your commitment and passion in doing this every Sunday.

Thank You

Scott and Sharon would like to thank everyone who took responsibility for different activities while they were away on holidays. You are each appreciated

Moonyah chapel and supper

On Tuesday 17th October, we provide some supper to the participants following their chapel service. If you are willing to help with this by attending chapel (6:30pm) and supplying and serving some supper following chapel, please speak with Sharon.

Corps outreach

The next Corps outreach at the Riverside markets is on October 15. Members of the band along with people who are keen to connect with our community will head to the markets in the City Botanical Gardens straight after our worship service. PNG

The team is back from a huge 9 days in PNG. We have found this time to be eye-opening, challenging, spiritually refreshing, and have been able to make lifetime connections and friendships. We were able to complete maintenance tasks however, we have only just scratched the surface. Our prayer is that the people of Kainantu will be encourage to be able to continue the work we have started with the skills that we have passed on. PNG has found a special place in out hearts and are all excited to get back!
