

Come
AND See

As we journey toward Easter, we reflect on Acts 2:42: “They devoted themselves to the apostles’ teaching and to fellowship, to the breaking of bread and to prayer.” This verse paints a picture of a people drawn together by the transforming power of Christ—learning, sharing, worshipping, and growing in faith.

Easter calls us to come and see—to witness afresh the power of Jesus’ death and resurrection. Like the early believers, we are invited to devote ourselves to God’s Word, to fellowship with one another, and to deepen our expectancy of what He will do in and through us. As we gather, let’s prepare our hearts, encourage one another, and step forward in faith, knowing that the risen Christ is among us!

What are you expecting God to reveal this Easter?
Come and see!

Well, here we go again. The weeks and months are moving very quickly. I seem to have my nose in lots of different ministry's. Where do I start??

Remember Alfred who sat off our coast inspecting his belly button fluff. Well thanks to his procrastination we now have a great connection with Emmanuel City Mission. I received a call from Ipswich Corps stating they have a lot of new underwear donated from Kmart. Off in the trusty Kia I go next week to distribute it between Emmanuel and the watch house. How great is our God? What fabulous connections we are making in our inner city community.

Who's coming to our Easter picnic?? 12th of April at 11.30am at the City Botanic Gardens. It will be a lot of fun for connection and community and Chocolate. The 3 legged races will be interesting and hopefully no broken hips will come of it.

GSA's 15th Birthday Party had to be rescheduled (Yes. Thanks Alfred) till the 13th of April. If you are available to attend on that day it would be fantastic. It would be lovely to have Corp members in this space. Also there will be cake!!

We attend Moonyah on a Tuesday evening for their Chapel service at 6.30pm. On the 3rd Tuesday of each month we provide Supper. It would be amazing if we could start a roster with Corps members participating. I get a little lonely. Please contact me if this is something you would like to participate in.

DID YOU KNOW?

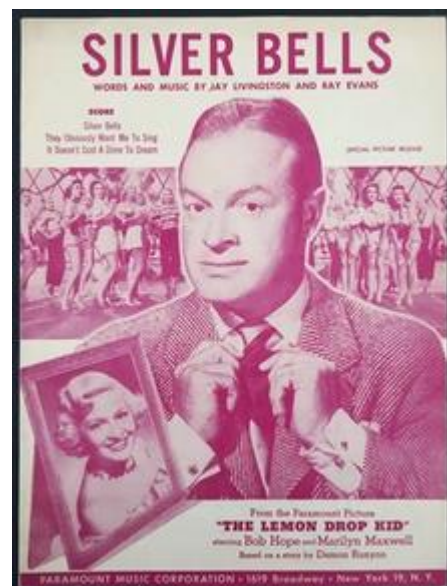

“On the wagon”

When Booth found himself without a church to preach in, he became a travelling preacher, spreading Christianity wherever he could. In 1865, he was invited to preach in London's East End and was provided with a piece of land on The phrase “on the wagon” was coined by men and women receiving the services of The Salvation Army. Former National Commander Evangeline Booth – founder William Booth's daughter – drove a hay wagon through the streets of New York to encourage alcoholics on board for a ride back to The Salvation Army. Hence, alcoholics in recovery were said to be “on the wagon.” to preach, which just so happened to be situated in a graveyard. Despite the melancholy surroundings, the graveyard sermons became a big success and the location became the first Salvationists' base of operations, providing an unlikely point of origin.

Silver Bells

Silver Bells - Songwriters Jay Livingston and Ray Evans worked for Paramount Pictures and were asked to come up with a Christmas song for the film "The Lemon-Drop Kid" starring Bob Hope. Using The Salvation Army bell ringers for inspiration, they wrote a song called "Tinkle Bells." When Livingston went home and told his wife she had to fill him in on an alternate meaning of the word tinkle. They changed the name to "Silver Bells" and it's been a Christmas favorite ever since.
