

This week, we remember Founders' Day, as we celebrate 140 years of Brisbane City Temple, we pause to give thanks for the extraordinary God who has worked through ordinary hands — generation after generation. We honour the vision and courage of those who have gone before us, from William and Catherine Booth to the faithful stewards of BCT's rich legacy.

But legacy is not just about looking back — it's about looking up and looking forward. Psalm 121 reminds us, "I lift up my eyes to the mountains — where does my help come from? My help comes from the Lord, the Maker of heaven and earth." As we look to the future, our confidence is not in ourselves, but in the God who has been faithful through every season.

Let's be people of prayer. People centered not on buildings or traditions, but on Christ alone. As we mark this milestone year, may we continue to seek His vision, His heart, and His leading for the days ahead — believing that the greatest chapters of this story are still to be written.

What's been happening this month at BCT?...The answer is lots.

This month I visited 2 Salvos Stores. At Indooroopilly with Major Ashley and Red Hill. These stores are a major help to the Salvation Army. With their volunteers and staff, they are amazing. The people we spoke to were so grateful that we came along with food of course and acknowledged their presence and their contribution. To be seen is very important. If anyone else would like to be a part of this ministry let Majors Ashley, Bronwyn or myself know. We need you.

I also visited Pine Rivers Corp to have a meeting with their Community Engagement worker. It is very important to keep up to date with how other Corps are operating to ensure we are doing the best we can.

Homeless Connect was also on at the RNA showgrounds this month. This occurs once a year. It is a great opportunity to connect with other services and individuals that may be going unnoticed or slipping under our radar.

The Wills people are in on Friday as well as a Ministry meeting. It is a busy little place.

The 140th celebrations are well underway so get involved. I had the privilege to step into Ron McDonalds shoes last week to help in his Ministry at the Railway Tunnels. Well what a cold little tunnel that was. This man does amazing things behind the scenes every week.

Mainly music and English classes are having a well deserved rest over the School holidays.

To everyone who helps out and volunteers here I say Thank you. You are seen.
