

Let's pray

Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people

Scripture

With what shall I come before the Lord and bow down before the exalted God? Shall I come before him with burnt offerings, with calves a year old? Will the Lord be pleased with thousands of rams, with ten thousand rivers of olive oil? Shall I offer my firstborn for my transgression, the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul? He has shown you, O mortal, what is good. And what does the Lord require of you? To act justly and to love mercy and to walk humbly with your God. (Micah 6:6-9)

Prayer

We come before you today Lord to offer prayer for our Aboriginal brothers and sisters. We pray for healing and strength at this time of uncertainty that is within our communities. We pray for unity within our community for our families during these times. Lord we pray that our people will look to you in these times of uncertainty and that they will come to know you as their Lord and Saviour. We thank you Lord for loving us, guiding us and always presence in our midst. Amen.

Father you are the God of Reconciliation and you are the God of Unity, and my prayer is in the spirit of reconciliation and with a heart that yearns for unity, for our nation. May Your Spirit continue to flow in and through us, to alight upon our hearts, and fan the flames of every heart in our nation that we would not only turn back to You but to turn to each other with an intent to right the wrongs and to bring us closer together. May the life of your Spirit arise within our hearts, and may we infect others with this life-giving force that only desires to manifest your glory in all situations. Amen.

Lord, bring families that have been torn apart back together, friends and friendships, businesses and all types and forms of relationships together in unity again, and may the life of that unity manifest its beauty for all to see. Thank you, Father, for gracing us with your Spirit, for sending us out into those places that need planting and watering and increase. Thank you for giving us the strength to be the conduit for your Spirit to flow into those places to bring glory to your name. In Jesus mighty name, Amen.

As followers of Christ, we pray and ask for your grace, your mercy, and your favour to allow people in power to hear the voice of First Nations people. We pray that the people in power hear and listen to the voice of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples', that they will listen understand and activate the just and right changes that need to be made regarding matters that impact us as Indigenous people of Australia so that we will be healed, physically, mentally, and spiritually. Amen.
