

Central Vic Salvos

Sunday 2nd July 2023

So no one told you life was gonna be this way
Your job's a joke, you're broke, your love life's DOA
It's like you're always stuck in second gear
When it hasn't been your day, your week, your month, or even your year, but

I'll be there for you (When the rain starts to pour)
I'll be there for you (Like I've been there before)
I'll be there for you ('Cause you're there for me too).

Many of you will know immediately that these lyrics are the theme song for the TV show Friends. This was a show about 6 friends sharing life together through all the highs and lows. But the one consistent thing through it all was their friendship. They wanted the best for each other and as a result stuck by each other despite all the craziness of life.

Proverbs 17:17 in The Message says, "Friends love through all kinds of weather, and families stick together in all kinds of trouble." God has placed people in our life he wants us to be friends with. This means we need to be prepared to stick with them no matter what happens in life.

Jesus is the ultimate friend to us. Even though we sinned against him, he stuck by us and even gave his life for us so we can receive the gift of salvation and eternal life. And God wants us to do the same for our friends. To love them with his love and stick by them in good and bad times.

But most of all he wants us to introduce him to our friends. Can we truly say Jesus is our best friend if we are too ashamed to introduce our other friends to him? Can we be a true friend to others if we keep the most important thing in our life hidden from them?

Evangelism can be scary. But when we realise that all evangelism is essentially is introducing one of our mates to another of our mates, it becomes a lot easier. If we want to be there for our friends, we need to let them know of Jesus love for them. So take the plunge this week and introduce your friends to Jesus.

“While women weep, as they do now,
I'll fight.

While little children go hungry, as they do now,
I'll fight.

While men go to prison, in and out, in and out, as they do now,
I'll fight.

While there is a drunkard left,
While there is a poor lost girl upon the streets,
While there remains one dark soul without the light of God,
I'll fight. I'll fight to the very end!”

— William Booth

doorways

Doorways is our Community Support program. It is the entryway through which those experiencing hardship and/or disadvantage can take proactive steps to find the support they need to overcome life's challenges and find long-term solutions. We offer a range of services from emergency relief to case management and more.

If you are experiencing hardship or financial difficulties, please call the Salvos Phone Assistance Line (PAL) on 03 8873 5288. This service operates Monday to Friday between 9am and 4pm.

Please be aware no assistance interviews will be conducted from our local sites. Community members presenting to any of our Central Vic Salvos sites will be invited to contact Salvos PAL.

The Salvation Army Central Victoria acknowledges the Dja Dja Wurrung and Taungurung Peoples of the Kulin Nation, the Traditional owners of the land on which we meet and work and pay our respect to Elders past, present and future. We value and include people of all cultures, languages, abilities, sexual orientations, gender identities, gender expressions and intersex status. We are committed to providing programs that are fully inclusive. We are committed to the safety and wellbeing of people of all ages, particularly children.
