

Central Vic Salvos

Sunday 7th May 2023

Have you experienced a cold shiver yet as the weather cools down? Perhaps some goose bumps or some icy fingers? Have you experienced the joy of standing in front of a wood fire or sitting in front of a warm heater?

One of the great things about colder weather is the exquisite feeling of bliss that we get when we are warmed up by those things that bring us heat. Open fires, gas heaters, electric blankets, oodles, ugg boots, a hot steaming soup, apple pie, the list goes on and on. The warming up of cold skin invigorates the body and relaxes the mind and often brings peace to our souls.

Imagine though for a moment experiencing winter without any of these luxuries of warmth. Imagine surviving through June to August without heaters, warm clothes, and heart-warming foods. Imagine life without blankets and doonas. It would make the world a very cold place.

Unfortunately for many people this is their reality, and it is why each year we raise funds through the Red Shield Appeal. And you can make a difference by helping collect so that people who are suffering can experience hope.

But a lack of physical warmth is not the only worry in our society. Many people also suffer from a lack of emotional warmth? Their existence is a cold one, not because they don't have a heater, but because they aren't surrounded by love. A life without the love of others is a very cold and bleak existence.

The good news is there is a solution that costs a lot less than running a heater. That solution is you and me. Jesus tells us the greatest things we can do on this earth is to love God and to love our neighbour as ourselves. Loving God makes us aware of the love He has for us which warms our heart and fills us with the capacity to subsequently love others. And the great thing about love is the more we 'burn' the more we are fueled to love even more. Love is one thing that we receive more of as we give it away.

Simple acts of love can have a huge impact on people. It brings warmth to their hearts and invigorates their souls. It is amazing how simple acts of kindness, a smile and a kind word to those we encounter, a word of encouragement can bring so much joy to a person's life. We may not be able to help a person with their physical needs, but we can always make a positive difference to their emotional needs.

This Red Shield Appeal time let us each take up the challenge to warm up our world through acts of love and service.
