SUNDAY 29 SEPTEMBER 2019

Parramatta Salvation Army

CORPSNEWS

THANK YOU TO THE BAND AND TIMBREL BRIGADE

As a relative of a patient at AMiNYA Nursing Home, I express his appreciation for the visit of the Band and Timbrel Brigade on Sunday, 22nd September. The visit was much enjoyed by the residents and was a wonderful expression of Salvationist activity in every way. Every one wishes to thank all those who took part for this "extra Mile service". May God bless each of you. Joyce Offereins

CVS NEWS

This week the Community Visitors met with residents of Arcare Glenhaven for a special treat. Jodie brought Danny the therapy horse to visit. Jodie spoke to the group about Danny who is a miniature horse and the places that she takes Danny. Danny visits residents in aged care, children in hospital, palliative care units and dementia units. Danny has visited thousands of people over the past 3 years that he has been a therapy horse. Both residents and CVS visitors loved hearing about Danny and having a pat of him. It really was a special morning. If you would like to become a Community Visitor or just want more information about it then please call Leanne 9635 6870.

PLANNED GIVING

For those who use weekly envelopes for their giving to the corps, a new set will be available for you to collect on Sunday. Please see Margaret Robinson.

For those who are not currently involved with our Planned Giving program and would like to be, please see Margaret who will provide you with a set of envelopes.
