

Doorways Casework

Community support

To find out if there is a local Doorways caseworker in your area, please talk to one of your local Salvation Army volunteers or staff.

Journeying with people through positive change

We welcome all people

Doorways offers a holistic approach to how Salvos care for people at their point of need by helping people seek emergency relief and then be connected through to other support.

This could be through a referral to a program or specialist service, or connection into community and other activities.

To find our locations and services, please visit:
salvationarmy.org.au
#Salvos

Change starts with the first step ...

Are you looking to make some positive changes in your life?

Don't know where start?

Doorways caseworkers are here to listen and can talk to you about starting your journey.

We journey with people through positive change

Doorways caseworkers will respond to all people with dignity and respect.

Doorways caseworkers will help you identify your skills and strengths, but also offer support to address your areas of concern. They will seek to encourage and empower you to step into your desired future.

Doorways Caseworkers can provide wrap-around support, including:

- Advocacy and support
- Information and Advice
- Case management
- Goal setting
- Positive Lifestyle Program
- Community connection opportunities

Referrals to specialist service, for example:

- Financial counselling
- Family and Domestic Violence support
- Homelessness
- Mental health support
- Employment support

