Genesis 28:1-5

So Isaac called for Jacob, blessed him, and said, “You must not marry any of these Canaanite women. ² Instead, go at once to Paddan-aram, to the house of your grandfather Bethuel, and marry one of your uncle Laban’s daughters. ³ May God Almighty bless you and give you many children. And may your descendants multiply and become many nations! ⁴ May God pass on to you and your descendants the blessings he promised to Abraham. May you own this land where you are now living as a foreigner, for God gave this land to Abraham.”

⁵ So Isaac sent Jacob away, and he went to Paddan-aram to stay with his uncle Laban, his mother’s brother, the son of Bethuel the Aramean.

Genesis 28:10-22

Jacob's Dream at Bethel

¹⁰ Meanwhile, Jacob left Beersheba and travelled toward Haran. ¹¹ At sundown he arrived at a good place to set up camp and stopped there for the night. Jacob found a stone to rest his head against and lay down to sleep. ¹² As he slept, he dreamed of a stairway that reached from the earth up to heaven. And he saw the angels of God going up and down the stairway.

¹³ At the top of the stairway stood the LORD, and he said, "I am the LORD, the God of your grandfather Abraham, and the God of your father, Isaac. The ground you are lying on belongs to you. I am giving it to you and your descendants."

Genesis 28:10-22

¹⁴ Your descendants will be as numerous as the dust of the earth! They will spread out in all directions—to the west and the east, to the north and the south. And all the families of the earth will be blessed through you and your descendants. ¹⁵ What's more, I am with you, and I will protect you wherever you go. One day I will bring you back to this land. I will not leave you until I have finished giving you everything I have promised you.”

¹⁶ Then Jacob awoke from his sleep and said, “Surely the LORD is in this place, and I wasn't even aware of it!” ¹⁷ But he was also afraid and said, “What an awesome place this is! It is none other than the house of God, the very gateway to heaven!”

Genesis 28:10-22

¹⁸ The next morning Jacob got up very early. He took the stone he had rested his head against, and he set it upright as a memorial pillar. Then he poured olive oil over it. ¹⁹ He named that place Bethel (which means “house of God”), although it was previously called Luz.

²⁰ Then Jacob made this vow: “If God will indeed be with me and protect me on this journey, and if he will provide me with food and clothing, ²¹ and if I return safely to my father’s home, then the LORD will certainly be my God. ²² And this memorial pillar I have set up will become a place for worshiping God, and I will present to God a tenth of everything he gives me.”

Genesis 32:17-32

¹⁷ He gave these instructions to the men leading the first group: “When my brother, Esau, meets you, he will ask, ‘Whose servants are you? Where are you going? Who owns these animals?’ ¹⁸ You must reply, ‘They belong to your servant Jacob, but they are a gift for his master Esau. Look, he is coming right behind us.’”

¹⁹ Jacob gave the same instructions to the second and third herdsmen and to all who followed behind the herds: “You must say the same thing to Esau when you meet him. ²⁰ And be sure to say, ‘Look, your servant Jacob is right behind us.’”

Jacob thought, “I will try to appease him by sending gifts ahead of me. When I see him in person, perhaps he will be friendly to me.” ²¹ So the gifts were sent on ahead, while Jacob himself spent that night in the camp.

Genesis 32:17-32

Jacob Wrestles with God

²² During the night Jacob got up and took his two wives, his two servant wives, and his eleven sons and crossed the Jabbok River with them. ²³ After taking them to the other side, he sent over all his possessions.

²⁴ This left Jacob all alone in the camp, and a man came and wrestled with him until the dawn began to break. ²⁵ When the man saw that he would not win the match, he touched Jacob's hip and wrenched it out of its socket. ²⁶ Then the man said, "Let me go, for the dawn is breaking!"

But Jacob said, "I will not let you go unless you bless me."

²⁷ "What is your name?" the man asked.

He replied, "Jacob."

Genesis 32:17-32

²⁸ “Your name will no longer be Jacob,” the man told him. “From now on you will be called Israel, because you have fought with God and with men and have won.”

²⁹ “Please tell me your name,” Jacob said.

“Why do you want to know my name?” the man replied. Then he blessed Jacob there.

³⁰ Jacob named the place Peniel (which means “face of God”), for he said, “I have seen God face to face, yet my life has been spared.” ³¹ The sun was rising as Jacob left Peniel, and he was limping because of the injury to his hip. ³² (Even today the people of Israel don’t eat the tendon near the hip socket because of what happened that night when the man strained the tendon of Jacob’s hip.)

Towards.

Drawing a new line in the sand...

I Bethel (Genesis 28:10-22)

Bethel is where Jacob meets with God after swindling his father for his blessing.

“Drawing a line in the sand” means; Setting a
New Standard to Strive Towards.

God revealed to Jacob the interaction between God and humankind.

Drawing a new line in the sand...

I Bethel (Genesis 28:10-22)

This dream was spiritual education for Jacob.

God was closer than Jacob ever thought possible and interacting with Jacob!

God met Jacob in a personal way

Drawing a new line in the sand...

I Bethel (Genesis 28:10-22)

Jacob confines God to this place which he christened as Bethel (God's House).

“Drawing a line in the sand” means; Setting a New Spiritual Standard to Strive Towards.

Drawing a new line in the sand...

I Bethel (Genesis 28:10-22)

His vow in response to God's revelation was to set the terms of his covenant with God.

If you can fix this God, I'll be your very best Christian....

Drawing a new line in the sand...

II Mahanam (Genesis 32:1-21)

God's Camp...

Jacob thought the angels of God had joined him...

...but Jacob had joined the angels where they were.

Drawing a new line in the sand...

II Mahanam (Genesis 32:1-21)

At Mahanam we see a glimmer of hope for Jacob.

“Drawing a line in the sand” means; Setting a New Spiritual Standard to Strive Towards.

Drawing a new line in the sand...

II Mahanam (Genesis 32:1-21)

If Jacob really trusted God, he would be at the head of the procession to meet Esau - not at the back of the procession.

Drawing a new line in the sand...

III Peniel (Genesis 32:22-32)

“Drawing a line in the sand” means; Setting a
New Spiritual Standard to Strive Towards.

Maybe God wanted to get Jacob alone ...

God wanted all of Jacob, for a purpose, and
God would take him by force if necessary.

Drawing a new line in the sand...

III Peniel (Genesis 32:22-32)

Jacob wasn't wrestling to get something from this Man, it was God who wanted something from Jacob.

Drawing a new line in the sand...

III Peniel (Genesis 32:22-32)

God wanted to show Jacob a new line in the sand, a line of godliness that Jacob could aspire towards more than it being a line within his easy reach.

Jacob never gave up...

Drawing a new line in the sand...

III Peniel (Genesis 32:22-32)

...God wants those who call Him Father to draw lines of faith in the sand, identifying personal and spiritually challenging goals, and to never give up the journey of achieving those goals or lines in the sand over and over, with God's help.

Drawing a new line in the sand...

“God helping me, I will!”

“Drawing a line in the sand” means; Setting a New Spiritual Standard to Strive Towards.

How deep is your desire for godliness or have you settled for goodness.

Drawing a new line in the sand...
