JOHN 8:11

A Woman Caught in Adultery

8 Jesus returned to the Mount of Olives, ² but early the next morning he was back again at the Temple. A crowd soon gathered, and he sat down and taught them. ³ As he was speaking, the teachers of religious law and the Pharisees brought a woman who had been caught in the act of adultery. They put her in front of the crowd.

⁴ “Teacher,” they said to Jesus, “this woman was caught in the act of adultery. ⁵ The law of Moses says to stone her. What do you say?”

⁶ They were trying to trap him into saying something they could use against him, but Jesus stooped down and wrote in the dust with his finger. ⁷ They kept demanding an answer, so he stood up again and said, “All right, but let the one who has never sinned throw the first stone!” ⁸ Then he stooped down again and wrote in the dust.

John 8:1-11 New Living Translation

A Woman Caught in Adultery

⁹ When the accusers heard this, they slipped away one by one, beginning with the oldest, until only Jesus was left in the middle of the crowd with the woman. ¹⁰ Then Jesus stood up again and said to the woman, “Where are your accusers? Didn’t even one of them condemn you?”

¹¹ “No, Lord,” she said.

And Jesus said, “Neither do I. Go and sin no more.”

John 8:1-11 is not so much about adultery but about sin - the silent contamination of one's holy space.

...also about judgement and forgiveness.

Only those with clean hands can throw stones.

The Teachers of Religious Law and the Pharisees

Note the timing...

Jesus is beginning another great day of teaching...

The crowd was gathering...

...an atmosphere of expectation.

...just as Jesus began to teach.

The Teachers of Religious Law and the Pharisees

Satan will use any and all means available to reduce the impact of your good works and personal testimony.

Put on all of God's armour so that you will be able to stand firm against all strategies of the devil. Ephesians 6:11 (NLT)

The Teachers of Religious Law and the Pharisees

The Religious Leaders were heartless.

They laid their trap (6) callously.

They put the woman unjustly in front of the crowd (3).

They outlined her offence (4)

They baited the trap by saying to Jesus,
“The law of Moses says to stone her. What do you say?” John 8:5 (NLT)

The actions of Jesus

Jesus remained calm...

...the meekness and gentleness of Christ

I appeal to you with the gentleness and kindness of Christ... 2 Corinthians 10:1

...His actions suggesting humility.

Jesus' actions are those of grace...

The actions of Jesus

Jesus begins by first identifying with the sinner in their personal condition.

The actions of Jesus

...meekness (a calm temper of mind, not easily provoked)

...gentleness (kindness and tenderness)

...grace (the willingness of God to forgive and to bless)

The actions of Jesus

...let the one who has never sinned throw the first stone! John 8:7 (NLT)

Jesus is demanded that justice be fairly and righteously applied.

...no witness steps forward

...no male offender is charged with this offense.

The actions of Jesus

Our Vision

Wherever there is hardship or injustice,
Salvos will live, love and fight, alongside others, to transform Australia one life at a time with the love of Jesus.

The Teachers of Religious Law and the Pharisees

Judgemental – where a man or woman has a desire to see the sins of others punished, while ignoring their own sin.

The Teachers of Religious Law and the Pharisees

“... why worry about a speck in your friend’s eye when you have a log in your own? How can you think of saying, ‘Friend, let me help you get rid of that speck in your eye,’ when you can’t see past the log in your own eye? Hypocrite! First get rid of the log in your own eye; then you will see well enough to deal with the speck in your friend’s eye.” Luke 6:41-42 (NLT)

...let the one who has never sinned throw the first stone! John 8:7 (NLT)

Jesus is demanded that justice be fairly and righteously applied.

He silently facilitates the backing down of the woman's accusers.

When the accusers heard this, they slipped away one by one, beginning with the oldest, until only Jesus was left in the middle of the crowd with the woman. John 8:9 (NLT)

...the men were now more aware of their own sin than the sin of the woman.

It is a comforting observation to know that the holy place within them was not so hardened by the presence of sin, that Jesus could not reach them.

“Woman, where are those accusers of yours? Has no one condemned you?” She said, “No one, Lord.” And Jesus said to her, “Neither do I condemn you; go and sin no more.” John 8:10,11

I appeal to you with the gentleness and kindness of Christ... 2 Corinthians 10:1.

Do not judge, not even silently in your own heart or in private talk, for such judgement will not stand up against the scrutiny of God...
