Here at The Salvation Army Tuggeranong we acknowledge the Ngunnawal people as the Traditional Owners of the Dhawa where we meet to worship.

We pay our respect to Elders and acknowledge their continuing relationship to this Dhawa and the ongoing living cultures of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples across Australia.

Djan Yimaba to the Ngunnawal people who care for the Dhawa we meet on. We commit ourselves in prayer and practice to this Dhawa of Australia and its people, seeking reconciliation, unity and equity.

Let us keep looking to Jesus. Our faith comes from Him, and He is the One Who makes it perfect. He did not give up when He had to suffer shame and die on a cross. He knew of the joy that would be His later. Now He is sitting at the right side of God.

Be Still for the presence of the Lord (NSB 353)

Be still for the presence of the Lord
The Holy one is here
Come bow before him now
In reverence and fear
In Him no sin is found
We stand on Holy ground
Be still for the presence of the Lord
The Holy one is here.

Hebrews 12: 2 NLV

Whoever wants to be great among you must be your servant and whoever wants to be greatest of all must be the slave of all. For even I, the Messiah, am not here to be served. I have come to help others and to give my life as a ransom for many.

Tell them in the East and in the West (NSB 930)

1 Tell them in the east and in the west,
Tell them of the one you love the best.
Tell them how to find the sweetest rest
Leaning on the loving saviour's breast.
Tell them all about the dear old book,
Tell them there is life just for a look;
Let this banner be unfurled:
Christ for the whole wide world.

Tell them in the East and in the West (NSB 930)

Tell them of the baby in the manger laid,
Sent from Heaven above;
Tell them how for them he was a ransom paid,
Just because of love.
Tell them with your lips and by your actions too,
And with flag unfurled,
Tell it out with a shout, tell it out with a shout:
Christ for the whole wide world.

Tell them in the East and in the West (NSB 930)

2 To the beat of Army drums make known
That the Saviour-King has sin o'erthrown;
Tell the rich and poor, the sad and lone,
Till his power to everyone is shown.
Tell it to the people you may meet,
Tell it in the hall and in the street;
Let this banner be unfurled:
Christ for the whole wide world.

Hebrews 12: 2 NLV

They sang with a loud voice; The Lamb is worthy.

He has been slain, He is worthy to receive the power, the riches, the wisdom and the strength.

He is worthy to receive the honour, the glory and the blessing.

Then I heard everyone in Heaven, on Earth, under the Earth and in the sea.

They were saying, blessing, honour, glory and power belong to the one on the throne.

And they belong to the Lamb forever and ever.

Let us keep looking to Jesus. Our faith comes from Him, and He is the One Who makes it perfect. He did not give up when He had to suffer shame and die on a cross. He knew of the joy that would be His later. Now He is sitting at the right side of God.

Hebrews 12: 2 NLV

For you are my place of safety and rest.

You are a high tower where my enemies can never reach me.

I shall live forever in Your tabernacle.

Oh, to be safe under the shelter of Your wings!

For You have heard my promises, O God.

I have promised to praise You every day and You have given me great blessings.

You save these blessings for those who respect Your name.

You will give me added years of life.

You will live for many generations and I shall live before the Lord forever.

Oh, send Your love and truth to guard and watch over me.

I will praise Your name always.

I will do as I promised, praising You each day.

But remember if you give little you will get little.

A farmer who plants just a few seeds will get a small crop.

But if he plants much he will harvest much.

Each person should decide how much he should give.

No one should force him to give.

God loves cheerful givers.

So, two good things happen as a result of your gifts.

Those in need are helped, and they overflow with thanks to God

Offering

The New 23rd

Because the Lord is my Shepherd,
I have ev'rything that I need.
He lets me rest in meadows green
And leads me beside the stream;
He keeps on giving life to me
And helps me to do what honors Him the most.
Even when walking thru the dark valley of death,
I will never be afraid, For He is close beside me,
Guiding, guiding all the way;
He spreads a feast before me in the presence of my enemies.

Hebrews 12: 2 NLV

8 It was by faith that Abraham obeyed when God called him to leave home and go to another land that God would give him as his inheritance. He went without knowing where he was going.

9 And even when he reached the land God promised him, he lived there by faith—for he was like a foreigner, living in tents. And so did Isaac and Jacob, who inherited the same promise.

10 Abraham was confidently looking forward to a city with eternal foundations, a city designed and built by God.

11 It was by faith that even Sarah was able to have a child, though she was barren and was too old. She believed [a] that God would keep his promise.

12 And so a whole nation came from this one man who was as good as dead—a nation with so many people that, like the stars in the sky and the sand on the seashore, there is no way to count them.

13 All these people died still believing what God had promised them. They did not receive what was promised, but they saw it all from a distance and welcomed it. They agreed that they were foreigners and nomads here on earth.

14 Obviously people who say such things are looking forward to a country they can call their own.

15 If they had longed for the country they came from, they could have gone back.

16 But they were looking for a better place, a heavenly homeland. That is why God is not ashamed to be called their God, for he has prepared a city for them.

So let us strip off anything that slows us down or holds us back. Let us drop those sins that wrap around our feet and trip us up. Let us run with patience the race that God has set before us.

Keep your eyes on Jesus, our Leader and Instructor. He was will to die a shameful death on the cross.

Hebrews 12: 1b – 2a (Simplified Living Translation)

God's soldier marches as to war,
A soldier on an alien shore,
A soldier true, a soldier who
Will keep the highest aims in view.
God's soldier goes where sin is found;
Where evil reigns, his battleground;
A cunning foe to overthrow
And strike for truth a telling blow.

God's Soldier (NSB 954)

We're going to fill, fill, fill the world with glory;
We're going to smile, smile, smile and not frown;
We're going to sing, sing, sing the gospel story;
We're going to turn the world upside down.

God's soldier has to stand alone,
Accepting burdens not his own;
A lonely work he cannot shirk,
Where dark and deadly dangers lurk.
God's soldier must courageous be,
And from his duties never flee,
For millions wait whose need is great,
And he must not God's plan frustrate.

God's Soldier (NSB 954)

We're going to fill, fill, fill the world with glory;
We're going to smile, smile, smile and not frown;
We're going to sing, sing, sing the gospel story;
We're going to turn the world upside down.
