HOW DO I MAKE

MY LIFE?

INTRODUCTION

LIFE LABS 1

HOW DO I MAKE SENSE OF MY LIFE?

Life can be busy. We can get so caught up in school, friends and different opportunities that come our way that we don't really take a moment to think about where we are going.

If we don't know the direction our lives are heading, we may feel anxious, out of place, or lost.

To figure out our direction we have to make sense of our lives answering questions like 'where we are', 'what we want', and 'how we get there'.

So, how do we make sense of our lives?

"IF WE DON'T KNOW THE DIRECTION OUR LIVES ARE HEADING, WE MAY FEEL ANXIOUS, OUT OF PLACE, OR LOST"

"So, how do we make sense of our lives?"

DO THE EXAMEN ACTIVITY

The Examen is an activity you can do every day to reflect on your day. You can also do it in many ways.

You might like to use the questions as headings in journal and write down your thoughts or take the questions with you as you go for a walk, or even find somewhere quiet and sit reflecting on the questions.

Whatever works best for you!

Examen questions:

- What were some highs? What were the times you felt most happy, excited, or alive?
- What were some lows? What were the moments you disliked, struggled, or felt down?
- What are you thankful for today?
- What would you do differently tomorrow?
- When you look back at your day, where have you seen God? It may have been moments of joy, friendship, peace or comfort.
- What are you looking forward to? What do you hope for tomorrow?

How was the bible made?

The Bible is a huge book made up of a collection of smaller books that God has given his people. These books were written over a long period of time, but they all come together to tell one unified story that ultimately points to Jesus.

The Old Testament was fully established by the time Jesus was born, and the New Testament was written by the apostles or people closely connected to an apostle and established by the 4th Century.

The books included in the New Testament were decided by three factors: what they said about Jesus, if they were being used by the churches already, and a connection to an apostle. The Bible is structured by groups of themes.

These themes point to the overall message of the Bible, which is God's love for his people, and the redemption and life that Jesus brings. If you're interested in finding out more, check out the bibleproject.com or check out the video below via the QR code.

¹³Then Jesus went from Galilee to the Jordan River to be baptized by John

¹⁴But John tried to talk him out of it. "I am the one who needs to be baptized by you," he said, "so why are you coming to me?"

¹⁵But Jesus said, "It should be done, for we must carry out all that God requires." So John agreed to baptize him.

¹⁶After his baptism, as Jesus came up out of the water, the heavens were opened and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and settling on him.

¹⁷And a voice from heaven said, "This is my dearly loved Son, who brings me great joy."

READ THE SCRIPTURE

What do I do if it feels like God isn't speaking to me?

The Bible is full of stories of God speaking to his people. God spoke to Moses through the burning bush (Exodus 3), to the Prophets, and one time, through a donkey (Numbers 22).

We can look at stories like this and think that God speaks like this all the time to people. Yet in the Psalms we see the poets asking "where is God? Why is he hiding?" (Psalms 44:23-26).

Sometimes it seems like God is not speaking or moving at all. This is a very real experience for the people of God throughout history. However, we see from the scriptures that though it may take some time for us to hear God or to see him move, ultimately, he does.

Even if we don't hear directly from God for a period, we can still trust that He is speaking to us in other ways. Here are some different ways we can hear from God:

- Read the bible
- Spend time with other believers
- Listen to worship music
- Spend time quietly alone
- Spend time in nature
- Do something nice for others
- Read a book about your faith
- Volunteer at your church or a non-profit organisation.

You might hear from God doing something you have not tried before. Give it a go!

HOW CAN OTHERS HELP ME FIND GOD'S GUIDANCE?

We're all making our way in life but that doesn't mean we have to do it on our own.

If we go off on our own, we might get lost or get in trouble and there won't be anyone there to support us.

While others might not be able to tell us exactly which way to go, they can encourage us, and we can learn from them.

first are apostles,
second are prophets,
third are teachers,
then those who do miracles,
those who have the gift of healing,
those who can help others,
those who have the gift of leadership,
those who speak in unknown languages.

29 Are we all apostles? Are we all prophets? Are we all teachers? Do we all have the power to do miracles?

30 Do we all have the gift of healing? Do we all have the ability to speak in unknown languages? Do we all have the ability to interpret unknown languages? Of course not!

31 So you should earnestly desire the most helpful gifts.

HOW DO WE BE A COMMUNITY?

We all live in communities made up of people from our neighbourhood, schools, and friends.

But it's not just being near people that makes a community. A community is how we connect to each other and belong in the places we live.

There are lots of different ideas about how to be a community. Some people think that community works best when everyone looks after themselves, or others might debate who belongs.

If we don't know how to be a community there might be conflict, or we may feel isolated and alone.

¹³Instead, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, and the blind.

¹⁴Then at the resurrection of the righteous, God will reward you for inviting those who could not repay you."

¹⁵Hearing this, a man sitting at the table with Jesus exclaimed, "What a blessing it will be to attend a banquet in the Kingdom of God!"

¹⁶Jesus replied with this story: "A man prepared a great feast and sent out many invitations.

¹⁷When the banquet was ready, he sent his servant to tell the guests, 'Come, the banquet is ready.'

¹⁸But they all began making excuses. One said, 'I have just bought a field and must inspect it. Please excuse me.'

¹⁹Another said, 'I have just bought five pairs of oxen, and I want to try them out. Please excuse me.'

²⁰Another said, 'I just got married, so I can't come.'

²¹"The servant returned and told his master what they had said. His master was furious and said, 'Go quickly into the streets and alleys of the town and invite the poor, the crippled, the blind, and the lame.'

²²After the servant had done this, he reported, 'There is still room for more.'

²³So his master said, 'Go out into the country lanes and behind the hedges and urge anyone you find to come, so that the house will be full.'

²⁴For none of those I first invited will get even the smallest taste of my banquet."

²⁵One day an expert in religious law stood up to test Jesus by asking him this question: "Teacher, what should I do to inherit eternal life?"

²⁶Jesus replied, "What does the law of Moses say? How do you read it?"

²⁷The man answered, "'You must love the LORD your God with all your heart, all your soul, all your strength, and all your mind.' And, 'Love your neighbour as yourself.'" [c]

²⁸"Right!" Jesus told him. "Do this and you will live!"

²⁹The man wanted to justify his actions, so he asked Jesus, "And who is my neighbour?"

Parable of the Good Samaritan

³⁰Jesus replied with a story: "A Jewish man was traveling from Jerusalem down to Jericho, and he was attacked by bandits. They stripped him of his clothes, beat him up, and left him half dead beside the road.

³¹"By chance a priest came along. But when he saw the man lying there, he crossed to the other side of the road and passed him by.

³²A Temple assistant [d] walked over and looked at him lying there, but he also passed by on the other side.

³³"Then a despised Samaritan came along, and when he saw the man, he felt compassion for him.

³⁴Going over to him, the Samaritan soothed his wounds with olive oil and wine and bandaged them. Then he put the man on his own donkey and took him to an inn, where he took care of him.

³⁵The next day he handed the innkeeper two silver coins, telling him, 'Take care of this man. If his bill runs higher than this, I'll pay you the next time I'm here.'

³⁶"Now which of these three would you say was a neighbour to the man who was attacked by bandits?" Jesus asked.

³⁷The man replied, "The one who showed him mercy." Then Jesus said, "Yes, now go and do the same."

CONCLUSION

CONCLUSION

“WE CAN ACKNOWLEDGE THEIR SITUATION AND SHOW CARE FOR THEM IN THE PROCESS”

We all try to help others when we can.

When we see people who are struggling it can be difficult to know what to do.

The good news is that even if we don't know what to do to help people, we can acknowledge their situation and show care for them in the process.

Just like the Good Samaritan in Jesus' story, we can be a good neighbour for people in need.

John 8:1-11

Jesus returned to the Mount of Olives,

²but early the next morning he was back again at the Temple. A crowd soon gathered, and he sat down and taught them.

³As he was speaking, the teachers of religious law and the Pharisees brought a woman who had been caught in the act of adultery. They put her in front of the crowd.

⁴"Teacher," they said to Jesus, "this woman was caught in the act of adultery.

⁵The law of Moses says to stone her. What do you say?"

⁶They were trying to trap him into saying something they could use against him, but Jesus stooped down and wrote in the dust with his finger.

⁷They kept demanding an answer, so he stood up again and said, "All right, but let the one who has never sinned throw the first stone!"

⁸Then he stooped down again and wrote in the dust.

⁹When the accusers heard this, they slipped away one by one, beginning with the oldest, until only Jesus was left in the middle of the crowd with the woman.

¹⁰Then Jesus stood up again and said to the woman, "Where are your accusers? Didn't even one of them condemn you?"

¹¹"No, Lord," she said. And Jesus said, "Neither do I. Go and sin no more."c

When we look around the world we can see natural disasters, war and poverty.

When we see all the things that are wrong, it can be easy to think things won't get better or give up hope. When people lose hope they might experience despair, think nothing matters or give up.

As followers of Jesus we can find hope knowing that God loves the world and is working to make it better.

We all need this hope and we can encourage others when we share it with them.
